

"ALL WOOL AND A YARD WIDE."

Though our windows may be demolished by a rampart street-car horse, we are prepared to serve our patrons now as well as yesterday. We go further, and propose a series of Bargains that emphasize our ability to hold the position of "The Leaders."

Competitors are advertising men's suits at $18. We have been all along selling a splendid suit at $20. But by way of contrast, we will, for to-morrow only, mark one of our finest grade men's suits, in six styles, at $12. Be sure and see this garment before you are deluded into purchasing elsewhere. Our name and the word "Bargain" are now synonymous, and this is as it should be. See what methods we have adopted to still further advance this truth.

In the front of our store we have our nicest goods, such as

Imported Satin-Lined Spring Overcoats reduced from $35 to	$18.00
Elegant Silk-Lined Prince Albert Suits reduced from $40.00 to	18.00
Satin-Lined Full-Dress Suits (swallow-tail) reduced from $50 to	20.00
Superb Silk-Lined, Silk-Faced and Satin Sleeve Lining Spring Overcoats, reduced from $75 to	20.00

PERMANENT BARGAIN COUNTER.

On six tables on each side of the store are piled high the stocks which are included in our bargain goods. The counters will be ready to-morrow morning for the public inspection. See how the bargains run.

Men's Wool Business Suits, reduced from $14 to	$6.00
Men's All-Wool Business Suits, reduced from $18.00 to	8.00
Imported Cheviot Business Suits, reduced from $22.00 to	10.00
English Worsted 4-Button Cutaway Suits, reduced from $25.00 to	12.00
Finest imported Dress and Business Suits, reduced from $40.00 to	15.00
Four Hundred "Odd" Spring Overcoats of highest grades, reduced from $40.00, $35.00 and $30.00 to	12.00

Bring this advertisement with you and compare it with the goods offered. We are willing that the public should enjoy the benefits of our enterprise and thus introduce the bargain feature permanently.

We guarantee that these bargains will surpass anything offered to the trade to-day in the merit of the goods offered and the amount saved you by trading with us.

GOULD'S LETTER KEPT BACK.

RUSSELL SAGE SAYS THE "L" WANTED IT
GIVEN OUT A WEEK AGO.

The return of Jay Gould to this city early this morning from his trip South gave rise to the report that he had been summoned home to attend to the complications which had arisen over the publication of his rapid transit letter to Mayor Grant.

It was also denied that Mr. Gould was the author of the letter to Mayor Grant, and that it was written up by the directors of the Manhattan Elevated Company in his absence.

Mr. Gould was at home this morning but declined to receive visitors. A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Manhattan Elevated Company was held at 71 Broadway, which was attended by Russell Sage, Vice-President Galloway, John H. Hall and George Gould. Mr. Sage said after the meeting that the story referred to was utterly without foundation.

Mr. Gould was expected back this morning, he said, and as for his letter to Mayor Grant, I can say that he was three weeks in preparing it and it was submitted to a meeting of the Board of Directors and approved before he went away.

"We wanted it published last week when it was presented to the Mayor, but he did not make it public until this week."

"I was certainly not at the reception we had yesterday at the Mayor's office. We had not the slightest intention of antagonizing his rapid transit scheme, and only wanted better facilities at the Battery for accommodating the public. We have been entirely misrepresented in the matter."

STEIN HELD ON TWO CHARGES.

The Concert Saloon Keeper Only Charges One Cell for Another.

Rudolph Stein, the concert saloon keeper, in whose place at 34 First street Sunday last Amelia Cordes died after singing a ballad, was arraigned at the Essex Market Police Court this morning.

There were two charges against him, one for giving concerts without a license and the other for selling beer on Sunday last. The arrest was made last evening, and Stein passed the night in a cell at the Fifth street station-house.

Justice Patterson held him in $1,000 bail for examination in the concert case, and in $100 bail for the violation of the Excise law.

BOGUS FIREMEN ARRAIGNED.

They Are Wanted in Buffalo Also for Working Their Little Game.

The bogus Fire Department subscription collectors, James W. Drummond and Samuel Conklin, were to-day taken before Justice O'Reilly at Jefferson Market Police Court. Detective Serg. Valley stated that he had visited several ladies who had been victimized for sums ranging from $10 to $25, but all refused to appear in court.

Fire Sgt. Moran, of Buffalo, sent a telegram to hold the men until an officer from that city could arrive, as they were wanted in Buffalo for working the same profitable game there.

It is probable the prisoners will be turned over to the Buffalo authorities for trial.

Our little girl when but three weeks old broke out with eczema. We tried the prescription from several good doctors, but without any special benefit. We tried S. S. S., but by the time one bottle was gone, her head began to heal, and by the time she had taken six bottles she was completely cured. Now she has a full and heavy head of hair—a robust, healthy child. I feel it but my duty to make this statement.

Fined Additional for Protecting.
Giuseppe Lotterelli, who describes himself as "associated with a lawyer who practices in the Supreme Court," was fined $10 in the Tombs Police Court today for disorderly conduct on Elm street last night. The prisoner was an indigent at the imposition of the fine, and made no much noise about it, but Justice Power imposed an additional fine. Both fines were paid.
